

Argus*, 8 December 1937, p. 14, Help for Aborigines

Mr. A. P. A. Burdeu, president of the Australian Aborigines' League (41 Winchester street, Moonee Ponds), appeals to the public for £26, the loss incurred on concerts in Melbourne in aid of aboriginal welfare. Mr. Burdeu suggests that the money, a large amount to the league, will readily be subscribed among the many friends of the aborigines.