

William Cooper to the Minister for the Interior, Thomas Paterson, 24 June 1935, National Archives of Australia, A1 1935/3951

Your letter dated 29-5-35 to hand in regard to clause 3 of same stating that there is 60,000 and 257,530 square miles of country reserved in the Northern Territory for the sole use of Aboriginals.

I would very much like to know the exact locality of these areas, and would you give me an idea as to nearest and most convenient route to take to get to these areas.
