

A. P. A. Burdeu, President, Australian Aborigines' League, to the Secretary, Department of the Interior, 10 August 1936, National Archives of Australia. A659, 1940/1/858

So that I may be able to locate the various places where native mission stations and settlements are, I am anxious to get a good map of Australia, good in the sense of its completeness. I do not know where to get such one.

Would you kindly advise if the Commonwealth Government have anything of this nature, and, if so, where it may be obtained and what is the price?

Thank you.